

Annual results for 2007: a positive and encouraging year

Boulogne-Billancourt, 8 April 2008:

2007 was marked by the departure of Alain Bernard, founding Chairman of Prosodie who handed over the company reins to his managers together with the Apax funds after the buyout of his shares in November 2006. A public offer was launched in April 2007 on the shares not yet held by Camélia Participations, the company created by the three managers and the Apax funds. Finally, in November 2007, Prosodie withdrew from the stock market after 9 years, practically to the day, of its listing.

In 2007, consolidated revenues for Prosodie totalled 172.2 million euros, up 4.2% compared to 2006 (165.3 million euros). This increase would have been identical with a comparable exchange rate and perimeter.

Consolidated accounts in million of euros	2007	2006
Revenues	172.2	165.3
Current operating income	11.9	12.3
Impact of non-recurring operations	- 9.1	- 0.7

B2B Prosodie France	15.6	14.8
B2B Prosodie Interactive	- 1.4	0.3
B2B Prosodie Ibérica	0.0	0.0
B2B nCryptone	- 2.7	-2.8
Other	- 1.3	0.1
Group current operating income	11.9	12.3

The Group's workforce rose from 946 to 967 employees at the end of the year.

In 2007, Prosodie France BtoB activities were very buoyant with growth close to 12% and current operating income of 11.7%. The quality of services and complementary nature of offers that the Group provides in voice, on-line and facilities management are the key to this profitable growth.

The performance of the BtoC division is particularly notable with a return to high profitability in 2007.

In Spain, the gross margin has risen sharply and the company has been structured to concentrate on two lines of service, voice and facilities management. Both of these services yield recurring revenue and are distributed in an even way over the financial year.

In North America, the impact of the expected departure of two major clients was reduced by the excellent sales performance on the voice activity and 2008 should show a return close to profitability.

The Group's current operating income totals €11.9m, with nCryptone losses and North American activities impacting for over 4 million euros.

After the impact of non-recurring operations (€9.1m in depreciation of shareholding), net group loss totalled – 4.9 million euros. The corporate tax cost was relatively comparable between 2006 and 2007.

Whereas the Group invested over €13m in 2007 to sustain growth and maintain its services at the forefront of technology, the Group's net debt fell during the year to €6.3m as of 31 December 2007.

The Group has additional borrowing power of €26m with its bankers, enabling it to make the investments required for profitable growth and to seize external growth opportunities that will be forthcoming in its business lines.

At the start of 2008 growth in France is strong with a less positive trend in North America due to the economic slowdown.
